

THE INSURANCE INDUSTRY CHARITABLE FOUNDATION UK

WHO WE ARE

The Insurance Industry Charitable Foundation (IICF) improves the lives of vulnerable and disadvantaged people by working together as an industry in grant giving, volunteering and leadership

WHAT WE DO

GRANTS

We give grants to non-profit organisations advancing social mobility to improve the lives of people in communities across the UK and to create new opportunities for companies to access diverse talent

VOLUNTEERING

We give employees opportunities to volunteer and share skills with the charities we support

LEADERSHIP

We serve as a leading voice on critical community issues and CSR and hold events that advocate inclusion and leadership while raising valuable funds for grants

OUR IMPACT

IICF has awarded £29M in local community grants and has contributed more than 300,000 hours of volunteer service globally. In the UK:

We've convened
600 industry leaders
at our events

Our grants have helped +1,300 people
in local communities across the country

Employees have contributed
1,000 volunteer hours
during IICF Week of Giving

"The skills Amaze has taught me will help me and stay with me for life."

WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT

- We recognise that companies can achieve greater community impact together
- We enhance the reputation of Insurance by creating an industry-wide platform for charitable giving, volunteering and community engagement
- We connect companies with the charities we support to increase industry access to diverse talent and future skills
- We help build a more socially responsible industry by uniting competitors to tackle business and social challenges together
