

Insurance Industry Charitable Foundation

WHO WE ARE

The Insurance Industry Charitable Foundation (IICF) improves the lives of vulnerable and disadvantaged people by offering an industry-wide platform for grant giving, volunteering and leadership.

WHAT WE DO

GRANTS

We award community grants to education and social mobility charities in the UK.

We connect companies and charities to increase industry access to diverse talent.

VOLUNTEERING

We create new opportunities for employee engagement and allow employees give back and gain experience by volunteering with IICF and in local communities.

LEADERSHIP

We serve as a leading voice on critical community issues and CSR and hold events that advocate inclusion and leadership while raising valuable funds for grants.

OUR IMPACT

IICF has awarded £30 million in local community grants and has contributed more than 300,000 hours of volunteer service globally. In the UK:

We've convened 1,000+ industry leaders at our events

Our grants have helped 4,500+ people in communities across the UK

Employees have contributed 1,000 volunteer hours during IICF Week of Giving

WHY SUPPORT IICF?

We recognise that companies can achieve greater community impact together:

- We amplify companies' impact by creating an industry-wide platform for charitable giving, volunteering and employee engagement.
- We connect companies with the charities we support to increase industry access to diverse talent and future skills.
- We help build a more socially responsible industry by uniting competitors to tackle business and social challenges together.

JOIN OVER 30 COMPANIES SUPPORTING IICF

"Lloyd's and the IICF do great work through their work in the community that has a hugely positive impact on society, and we should all take pride in what we achieve and the impact it has, with one caveat: that we must always strive to do more."

John Neal, CEO, Lloyd's at IICF Charity Ball, June 2019
