

IICF UK Volunteering Opportunities with Grant Recipient Charities in 2023

Charity	Description	Location/s	Types of Volunteering	Contact Details
Bookmark Reading Charity	Bookmark run a volunteer-led reading programme to give children the reading skills and confidence to change their story and have fair chance in life.	London + Virtual	Become a reading volunteer to help a child learn to read and be more confident. Volunteer for 30 minutes twice a week for 6 weeks.	Apply for volunteering through Bookmark's website: www.bookmarkreading.org/
Break	Each year, Break supports more than 600 children and young people in care who have a background of trauma, neglect and disrupted education.	Norwich + East Anglia	Volunteer at a Break charity shop or fundraising event, or mentor a vulnerable young person	Further information can be found through Break's website: www.break-charity.org/
Ignite Hubs	Ignite Hubs is on a mission to ignite the potential of young minds by providing hubs and online learning platforms for children in South London and beyond.	London	Help Organising events and promote the STEM career book series	Further information can be found through Break's website: www.ignitehubs.org.uk
Out together (Friends of Dorothy)	The charity champions social inclusion for older LGBT+ people, by hosting regular activities and events.	Leeds	Volunteer as a telefriend to spend time with those who would otherwise have no contacts to spend time with and talk to	Find out more and apply through their website: https://friendsofdorothy.org.uk
Spartans CFA	It is our vision to deliver positive social impact and change through the power of people and sport.	Edinburgh	Volunteer with Spartans in local schools to support the Sphero (robotics technology) project	If you are interested in volunteering or would like to find out more, please drop by The Academy, call Spartans on 0131 552 7854 or email: info@spartanscfa.com Website: www.spartanscfa.com

Charity	Description	Location/s	Types of Volunteering	Contact Details
Women's Inclusive Team (WIT)	Empowers women in East London to become independent and access services to help them to develop skills and confidence.	East London	Be a mentor to help WIT colleagues improve their skills and do better at their jobs; Participate in skills workshops with women or young people	To learn more, contact Sahre: sahram@wit.org.uk . https://wit.org.uk
City in the Community	We use the 'football effect' to promote health, education and inclusion, to improve the lives of young people in Manchester and beyond.	Manchester	Participate in / support disability football league matches	Contact Craig Bell for upcoming matches: craig.bell@cityfootball.com . www.mancity.com/community
KidsOut	Gives positive experiences and helps create better futures for disadvantaged children, often living in refuge.	Bedfordshire + refuges in London and regions	Pack toy boxes at a KidsOut warehouse; Translate World Stories, help redecorate or garden at a refuge, or participate in the Giving Tree campaign in December	You can find further information through their website: www.kidsout.org.uk
St Giles	Helps people turn pasts into positive futures by using expertise and real-life past experiences to empower people who are not getting the help they need.	S. London	Be a mentor to support someone on their career journey or share a particular area of expertise to help St Giles staff and volunteers to succeed and grow.	Interested? Please contact Eshani: eshani.gheewala@stgilestrust.org.uk Or find further information on their website: www.stgilestrust.org.uk
Vision Foundation/ Fight for Sight	We've learned that 90% of people with sight are employed yet the reverse is true of people with sight loss – 90% are unemployed. We are working to change this and, in turn, create a more inclusive London.	London	There are multiple ways in multiple locations to support Vision Foundation's great work, in Retail, Fundraising and Evens.	You can find further information through their website: www.visionfoundation.org.uk

To learn more about IICF's impact and grant recipient charities, visit www.iicf.org.uk/our-impact.

Please feel free to register to volunteer with Bookmark directly. If you're interested in a particular volunteering project with another charity, please contact Wendy Wilder (wwilder@iicf.com) for an introduction.