

IICF, helping communities and enriching lives, together.

Bookmark Reading Charity

are helping children develop reading skills to succeed in school and beyond.

366 headsets given to partner schools for 26,408 on-line reading sessions to children aged 5-9, improving their reading confidence by 94%.

Ignite Hubs

ran 8 coding sessions in S. London to teach STEM and ignite the potential of 20 children and young people.

Women's Inclusive Team

offer community services and training to ethnic minority women in Tower Hamlets.

49 Somali women joined workshops for career advice, to learn digital skills and navigate online services.

Break Charity

help create brighter futures for children and young people with care experience.

25+ young people improved their digital skills through training and 1:1 sessions; opening doors to employment and independence.

Our grants to 14 charities have helped over 1,300 people nationwide.

KidsOut

provide toy boxes and fun days out to bring a smile to children living in refuge often after domestic violence.

100+ fun days out and 50+ toy boxes shared with children.

Out Together

create a vibrant community and unite LGBTQ+ generations in Yorkshire.

50 isolated LGBTQ+ people joined the tele-friending service, creating connection and driving social inclusion.

Spartans Community Football Academy

deliver positive social change in deprived areas of Edinburgh through the power of people and sport.

1,000+ primary school children inspired to learn STEM subjects using Sphero robotics technology.

St Giles

Last year St Giles Trust provided 5,569 people with one-to-one interventions.

Every £1 invested in St Giles' peer-led service saves the taxpayer £8.54.

Insurance Industry
Charitable Foundation